1.2 Construction. In these Conditions, the following rules apply: 2 (a) a person includes a natural person, corporate or unincorporated body (whether or not having separate legal personality); (b) a reference to a party includes its successors or permitted assigns; (c) a reference to a statute or statutory provision is a reference to such statute or statutory provision as amended or re-enacted. A reference to a statute or statutory provision includes any subordinate legislation made under that statute or statutory provision, as amended or re-enacted; (d) any phrase introduced by the terms including, include, in particular or any similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms; and (e) a reference to writing or written includes faxes and e-mails.

2. BASIS OF CONTRACT

2.1 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods and/or Services in accordance with these Conditions.

2.2 The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when TT issues written acceptance of the Order at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence (Commencement Date).

2.3 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. The Customer acknowledges that it has not relied on any statement, promise or representation made or given by or on behalf of TT which is not set out in the Contract.

2.4 Any samples, drawings, descriptive matter or advertising issued by TT and any descriptions of the Goods or illustrations or descriptions of the Services contained in TT's catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Services and/or Goods described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract or have any contractual force. Goods shall not be sold by sample unless the Order specifies otherwise.

2.5 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

2.6 Any quotation given by TT shall not constitute an offer, and is only valid for a period of 30 Business Days from its date of issue.

2.7 All of these Conditions shall apply to the supply of both Goods and Services except where application to one or the other is specified.

3. GOODS

3.1 The Goods are described in the Goods Specification.

3.2 To the extent that the Goods are to be manufactured in accordance with a Goods Specification supplied by the Customer, the Customer shall indemnify TT against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal and other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by TT in connection with any claim made against TT for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights arising out of or in connection with TT's use of the Goods Specification. This clause 3.2 shall survive termination of the Contract.

3.3 TT reserves the right to amend the Goods Specification.

4. DELIVERY OF GOODS

4.1 TT shall ensure that each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows the date of the Order, all relevant Customer and TT reference numbers, the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable), special storage instructions (if any) and, if the Order is being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered.

4.2 TT shall (at the cost of the Customer, unless otherwise agreed) deliver the Goods to the location set out in the Order or such other location as the parties may agree (Delivery Location) at any time after TT notifies the Customer that the Goods are ready.

4.3 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the Goods' arrival at the Delivery Location. The Customer shall be responsible for loading and/or unloading Goods (as appropriate) on their arrival at the Delivery Location.

4.4 Any dates quoted for delivery of the Goods are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. TT shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods that is caused by a Force

Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide TT with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.

4.5 Any right of the Customer to reject the Goods and/or terminate the Contract for late delivery of the Goods shall not be exercisable unless the Customer has first served written notice on TT requiring TT to complete delivery of the Goods within not less than 30 Business Days of service of that notice on TT in accordance with clause 15.3.

4.6 If TT fails to deliver the Goods, its liability shall be limited to the price of the Goods. TT shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Goods to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide TT with adequate delivery instructions for the Goods or any relevant instruction related to the supply of the Goods.

4.7 If the Customer fails to accept or take delivery of the Goods within 10 Business Days of TT notifying the Customer that the Goods are ready, then except where such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event or by TT's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract in respect of the Goods: (a) delivery of the Goods shall be deemed to have been completed at 9.00 am on the Business Day following the day on which TT notified the Customer that the Goods were ready; (b) TT shall store the Goods until delivery takes place, and charge the Customer for all related costs and expenses (including insurance); and (c) TT shall not be required to supply any further Goods or Services to the Customer until all outstanding money owed by the Customer to TT in relation to all supplies of Goods and Services has been paid in full.

4.8 If 10 Business Days after TT has notified the Customer that the Goods were ready for delivery the Customer has not accepted or taken delivery of them, TT may resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Goods and, after deducting reasonable storage and selling costs, account to the Customer for any excess over the price of the Goods or charge the Customer for any shortfall below the price of the Goods.

4.9 The Customer shall not be entitled to reject the Goods if TT delivers up to and including 5 per cent more or less than the quantity of Goods ordered, but a pro-rata adjustment shall be made to the Order invoice on receipt of notice from the Customer that the wrong quantity of Goods was delivered. 4.10 TT may deliver the Goods by instalments, which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Each instalment shall constitute a separate contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.

5. QUALITY OF GOODS

5.1 TT warrants that on delivery, and for a period of 12 months from the date of delivery (Warranty Period),] the Goods shall: (a) conform in all material respects with the Goods Specification; (b) be free from material defects in workmanship; (c) be of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979); and (d) be fit for any purpose held out by TT. (e) If there is no goods specification, conform in all material respects with IPC class 2.

5.2 Subject to clause 5.3, if: (a) the Customer gives notice in writing during the Warranty Period within 2 Business Days of discovery that some or all of the Goods do not comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.1; (b) TT is given a reasonable opportunity of examining such Goods; and (c) the Customer (if asked to do so by TT) returns such Goods to TT's place of business, TT shall, at its option, repair or replace the defective Goods, or refund the price of the defective Goods in full.

5.3 TT shall not be liable for the Goods' failure to comply with the warranty in clause 5.1 if: (a) the Customer makes any further use of such Goods after giving a notice in accordance with clause 5.2; 5

(b) the defect arises because the Customer failed to follow TT's oral or written instructions as to the storage, installation, commissioning, use or maintenance of the Goods or (if there are none) good trade practice; (c) the defect arises as a result of TT following any drawing, design or Goods Specification supplied by the Customer or using materials supplied by the Customer; (d) the Customer alters or repairs such Goods without the written consent of TT; (e) the defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence, or abnormal working conditions; (f) the Goods differ from the Goods Specification as a result of changes made to ensure they comply with applicable statutory or regulatory standards.

5.4 Except as provided in this clause 5, TT shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the Goods' failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.1.

5.5 The terms of these Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by TT under clause 5.2.

6. TITLE AND RISK

6.1 The risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.

6.2 Title to the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until TT has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for: (a) the Goods; and (b) any other goods that TT has supplied to the Customer in respect of which payment has become due.

6.3 Until title to the Goods has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall: (a) hold the Goods on a fiduciary basis as TT's bailee; (b) store the Goods separately from all other goods held by the Customer so that they remain readily identifiable as TT's property; (c) not remove, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Goods; (d) maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured against all risks for their full price on TT's behalf from the date of delivery; (e) notify TT immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 13.1(b) to clause 13.1(l); and (f) give TT such information relating to the Goods as TT may require from time to time, but the Customer may resell or use the Goods in the ordinary course of its business. 6

6.4 If before title to the Goods passes to the Customer the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 13.1(b) to clause 13.1(l), or TT reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the Customer accordingly, then, provided the Goods have not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product, and without limiting any other right or remedy TT may have, TT may at any time require the Customer to deliver up the Goods and, if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods are stored in order to recover them.

7. SUPPLY OF SERVICES

7.1 TT shall provide the Services to the Customer in accordance with the Service Specification in all material respects.

7.2 TT shall use all reasonable endeavours to meet any performance dates for the Services specified in the Service Specification but any such dates shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence for the performance of the Services.

7.3 TT shall have the right to make any changes to the Services which are necessary to comply with any applicable law or safety requirement, or which do not materially affect the nature or quality of the Services, and TT shall notify the Customer in any such event.

7.4 TT warrants to the Customer that the Services will be provided using reasonable care and skill.

7.5 To the extent that Services are to be provided in accordance with a Services Specification supplied by the Customer, the Customer shall indemnify TT against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal and other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by TT in connection with any claim made against TT for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights arising out of or in connection with TT's use of the Services Specification. This clause 7.5 shall survive termination of the Contract.

8. CUSTOMER'S OBLIGATIONS

8.1 The Customer shall: (a) ensure that the terms of the Order and (if submitted by the Customer) the Goods Specification are complete and accurate; (b) co-operate with TT in all matters relating to the Services; (c) provide TT, its employees, agents, consultants and subcontractors, with access to the Customer's premises, office accommodation and other facilities as reasonably required by TT to provide the Services; (d) provide TT with such information and materials as TT may reasonably require to supply the Services, and ensure that such information is accurate in all material respects; (e) prepare the Customer's premises for the supply of the Services; (f) obtain and maintain all necessary licences, permissions and consents which may be required for the Services before the date on which the Services are to start; and (g) keep and maintain all materials, equipment, documents and other property of TT (Supplier Materials) at the Customer's premises in safe custody at its own risk, maintain the TT Materials in good condition until returned to TT, and not dispose of or use the TT Materials other than in accordance with the TT's written instructions or authorisation.

8.2 If TT's performance of any of its obligations in respect of the Services is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by the Customer or failure by the Customer to perform any relevant obligation (Customer Default): (a) TT shall without limiting its other rights or remedies have the right to suspend performance of the Services until the Customer remedies the Customer Default, and to rely on the Customer Default to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations to the extent the Customer Default prevents or delays TT's performance of any of its obligations; (b) TT shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from TT's failure or delay to perform any of its obligations as set out in this clause 8.2; and (c) the Customer shall reimburse TT on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by TT arising directly or indirectly from the Customer Default.

9. CHARGES AND PAYMENT

9.1 The price for Goods shall be the price set out in the Order or as otherwise determined in accordance with the Contract. The price of the Goods is exclusive of all costs and charges of packaging, insurance, transport of the Goods, which shall be paid by the Customer when it pays for the Goods.

9.2 The charges for Services shall be the charges set out in the Order or as otherwise determined in accordance with the Contract.

9.3 In respect of Goods, TT shall invoice the Customer on or at any time after completion of delivery of the Goods or any part of them. In respect of Services, TT shall invoice the Customer on completion of the Services or any part of the Services.

9.4 The Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by TT: (a) within 30 days of the date of the invoice; and (b) in full and by BACS automatic funds transfer to a bank account nominated in writing by TT, and time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.

9.5 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract are exclusive of amounts in respect of value added tax chargeable from time to time (VAT). Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by TT to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from TT, pay to TT such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Services or Goods at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Services or Goods.

9.6 Without limiting any other right or remedy of TT, if the Customer fails to make any payment due to TT under the Contract by the due date for payment (Due Date), TT shall have the right to charge interest on the overdue amount at the rate of five per cent per annum above the then current HSBC Bank Plc base rate accruing on a daily basis from the Due Date until the date of actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment, and compounding quarterly.

9.7 The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any deduction or withholding except as required by law and the Customer shall not be entitled to assert any credit, set-off or counterclaim against TT in order to justify withholding payment of any such amount in whole or in part. TT may, without limiting its other rights or remedies, set off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by TT to the Customer.

9.8 TT may increase the price of Goods or charges for Services to take account of any increases in the cost to TT of supplying those Goods or Services (including, without limitation, any foreign exchange fluctuation, currency regulation, alteration of duties, change in regulation, significant increase in the costs of labour, materials or other costs of manufacture of Goods or supply of Services).

9.9 Any increase pursuant to clause 9.8 shall be notified to the Customer not less than 5 Business Days prior to the increase taking effect.

9.10 The Customer may cancel any Order if the price or charges are to be increased in accordance with clause 9.8, provided written notice of cancellation is served on TT before the price increase is to take effect and the Customer undertakes to pay to TT the cost of materials purchased or ordered by TT with reference to that Order plus 15% of that cost as a handling fee.

9.11 Any payments received from the Customer may be applied by TT (in its absolute discretion) against any debt then owed (whether or not due for payment) by the Customer to TT.

9.12 If the Customer does not pay to TT any money owed on or before the due date for payment, in addition to any other right or remedy it may have, TT shall be entitled to cancel, withhold or suspend any obligation to the Customer it may then have under any contract or other arrangement with the Customer. 9.13 TT may at any time set a credit limit for the Customer and shall (in its absolute discretion) be entitled to raise or lower that credit limit. Changes in the credit limit shall be notified to the Customer.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

10.1 All Intellectual Property Rights in or arising out of or in connection with the Services shall be owned by TT. 9

10.2 The Customer acknowledges that, in respect of any third party Intellectual Property Rights in the Services, the Customer's use of any such Intellectual Property Rights is conditional on TT obtaining a written licence from the relevant licensor on such terms as will entitle TT to license such rights to the Customer.

10.3 All TT Materials are the exclusive property of TT.

10.4 The Customer shall not change, modify or otherwise interfere with the Intellectual Property Rights of TT or any third party which reside in the Goods or any associated packaging.

10.5 All Intellectual Property Rights in the Goods arising in the production of Goods made by TT to a Goods Specification shall become the property of the Customer upon payment for the Goods in question, but Intellectual Property Rights in the process of producing the Goods which arise in the production of the Goods, shall be the Property of TT.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY A party (Receiving Party) shall keep in strict confidence all technical or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, processes or initiatives which are of a confidential nature and have been disclosed to the Receiving Party by the other party (Disclosing Party), its employees, agents or subcontractors, and any other confidential information concerning the Disclosing Party's business or its products or its services which the Receiving Party may obtain. The Receiving Party shall restrict disclosure of such confidential information to such of its employees, agents or subcontractors as need to know it for the purpose of discharging the Receiving Party's obligations under the Contract, and shall ensure that such employees, agents or subcontractors are subject to obligations of confidentiality corresponding to those which bind the Receiving Party. This clause 11 shall survive termination of the Contract.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: THE CUSTOMER'S ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY DRAWN TO THIS CLAUSE

12.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude TT's liability for: (a) death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors; (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; (c) breach of the terms implied by section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 (title and quiet possession); (d) breach of the terms implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 (title and quiet possession); or (e) defective products under the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

12.2 Subject to clause 12.1: 10 (a) TT shall under no circumstances whatever be liable to the Customer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the Contract; and (b) TT's total liability to the Customer in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed the price payable under the relevant Order or Orders.

12.3 The terms implied by sections 13 to 15 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 and the terms implied by sections 3 to 5 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.

12.4 This clause 12 shall survive termination of the Contract.

13. TERMINATION

13.1 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, each party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if: (a) the other party commits a material breach of its obligations under this Contract and (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within 40 days after receipt of notice in writing of the breach; (b) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or (being a company) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being an individual) is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing, in either case, within the meaning of section

268 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing apply; (c) the other party commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors other than (where a company) for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party; (d) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of the other party (being a company) other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of the other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party; (e) the other party (being an individual) is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order; (f) a creditor or encumbrancer of the other party attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of its assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days; (g) an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed over the other party (being a company); 11 (h) a floating charge holder over the assets of the other party (being a company) has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver; (i) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the assets of the other party or a receiver is appointed over the assets of the other party; (j) any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the other party in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in clause 13.1(b) to clause 13.1(i) (inclusive); (k) the other party suspends, threatens to suspend, ceases or threatens to cease to carry on, all or substantially the whole of its business; or (l) the other party (being an individual) dies or, by reason of illness or incapacity (whether mental or physical), is incapable of managing his own affairs or becomes a patient under any mental health legislation.

13.2 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, TT may terminate the Contract: (a) by giving the Customer three months' written notice; (b) with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment.

13.3 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, TT shall have the right to suspend the supply of Services or all further deliveries of Goods under the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and TT if: (a) the Customer fails to make pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment; or (b) the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 13.1(b) to clause 13.1(l), or TT reasonably believes that the Customer is about to become subject to any of them.

14. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION

14.1 On termination of the Contract for any reason: (a) the Customer shall immediately pay to TT all of the TT's outstanding unpaid invoices and interest and, in respect of Services supplied but for which no invoice has yet been submitted, TT shall submit an invoice, which shall be payable by the Customer immediately on receipt; (b) the Customer shall return all of the TT Materials and any Deliverables which have not been fully paid for. If the Customer fails to do so, then TT may enter the Customer's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned, the Customer shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with this Contract; (c) the accrued rights and remedies of the parties as at termination shall not be affected, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry; and (d) clauses which expressly or by implication have effect after termination shall continue in full force and effect. 12

14.2 In addition to the amounts payable to TT under clause 14.1, the Customer shall reimburse to TT all expenses incurred by it (including a reasonable charge for management time) in connection with Orders which will not be fulfilled due to termination of the Contract.

15. GENERAL

15.1 Force majeure: (a) For the purposes of this Contract, Force Majeure Event means an event beyond the reasonable control of TT including but not limited to strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving the workforce of the party or any other party), failure of a utility service or transport network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, flood, storm or default of suppliers or subcontractors. (b) TT shall not be liable to the Customer as a result of any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract as a result of a Force Majeure Event. (c) If the Force Majeure Event prevents TT from providing any of the Services and/or Goods for more than four weeks, TT shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have the right to terminate this Contract immediately by giving written notice to the Customer.

15.2 Assignment and subcontracting: (a) TT may at any time assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party. (b) The Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of TT, assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract.

15.3 Notices: (a) Any notice or other communication required to be given to a party under or in connection with this Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the other party personally or sent by prepaid first-class post, recorded delivery or by commercial courier, at its registered office (if a company) or (in any other case) its principal place of business, or sent by fax to the other party's main fax number. (b) Any notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been duly received if delivered personally, when left at such addressor, if sent by prepaid first-class post or recorded delivery, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting, or if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed, or if sent by fax, on the next Business Day after transmission. (c) This clause 15.3 shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action. For the purposes of this clause, "writing" shall not include e-mails and for the avoidance of doubt notice given under this Contract shall not be validly served if sent by e-mail.

15.4 Waiver and cumulative remedies: 13 (a) A waiver of any right under the Contract is only effective if it is in writing and shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right or remedy under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor preclude or restrict its further exercise. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. (b) Unless specifically provided otherwise, rights arising under the Contract are cumulative and to not exclude rights provided by law.

15.5 Severance: (a) If a court or any other competent authority finds that any provision of the Contract (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Contract shall not be affected. (b) If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision of the Contract would be valid, enforceable and legal if some part of it were deleted, the provision shall apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable.

15.6 No partnership: Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a partnership or joint venture of any kind between any of the parties, nor constitute any party the agent of another party for any purpose. No party shall have authority to act as agent for, or to bind, the other party in any way.

15.7 Third parties: A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights under or in connection with it.

15.8 Variation: Except as set out in these Conditions, any variation, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, to the Contract shall only be binding when agreed in writing and signed by TT.

15.9 Governing law and jurisdiction: This Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law, and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
